Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on November 24, 2006 has been entered.

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: applicant's amendments and arguments are deemed to overcome the prior art and the 35 USC 112 rejections. With regard to the 35 USC 112, first paragraph rejections, applicant has clearly shown support in the originally filed specification for the claimed features. In particular, pages 6 and 7 of the November 24, 2006 response specifically point out the language, with reference to the figures, that supports the claimed subject matter. As such, this rejection is withdrawn. Concerning the prior art, applicant's arguments that the prior art (i.e. Avitall '493) fails to teach the claimed structure. In particular, Avitall fails to disclose the appropriate dimensions for creating a continuous circumferential lesion in the region of tissue associated with an orifice of a vein that carries blood to an atrium. Rather, the Avitall loop is designed to fit within the entire atrium and to create specific lesions within the atrium as argued at page 9 of applicant's response. Similarly, Avitall is deemed to not meet the means plus function language of claims 148, 150 and 153 since the structure of Avitall would be incapable of creating the continuous lesions described in these claims. All outstanding rejections have been overcome and the claims are now deemed allowable.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
